

Hope Star

Arkansas—Cloudy, with light rain and cold waves in north and central portions; rain heavier in 32 in northwest; clearing in northeast and central portions Wednesday night; Thursday cloudy and considerably colder.

VOLUME 37—NUMBER 147

(AP)—Means Associated Press
(NRA)—Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n

HOPE, ARKANSAS, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 1936

Star of Hope 1899: Press, 1927.
Consolidated January 12, 1929.

PRICE 6c COPY

BRUNO TO DIE 7 P. M. FRIDAY

Here and There

Editorial By ALEX. H. WASHBURN

IN THE current issue of Newsdom, New York publication for newspaper men, James G. Stahlman announces that the Southern Newspaper Publishers association has "placed in escrow in New York City contracts for sufficient tonnage for a two-machine newsprint mill in the South."

Only Two Dozen Books Left, Star Extends Its Offer

Modern Encyclopedia Bargain to Be Closed Finally in Few Days

WILL NOT REORDER

24 Books Are All That Remain of Star's Book Company Consignment

A deluge of telephone requests Tuesday caused The Star to decide to hold its Modern Encyclopedia offer open for a few days longer.

The newspaper's offering of the Wm. H. Wise & Co. book was to have been ended Tuesday night—but the office sold 19 encyclopedias in the closing hours Tuesday afternoon and had to break into the last full shipment case.

There are only two dozen books left, with more than 120 sold.

The price is $1.25, cash over the counter at The Star office, or $1.40 by mail. There can be no reservations, or "lay-aways," for The Star is handling the encyclopedia at cost, having the books here on consignment from the Wise company. Any unsold books will be returned to New York.

Of the $1.25 counter price, the newspaper remits 95 cents to the Wise company, which, with 15 cents freight per book paid by The Star, makes the Hope cost-price $1.10—a "profit" of 15 cents per book for the newspaper.

So far The Star has realized $18 on encyclopedia sales, against about $400 worth of "deadhead" advertising—which indicates how sincerely the newspaper believes in the Modern Encyclopedia as a worth-while addition to every family library.

The encyclopedia, a 1,334-page book of legible type and good paper, sold direct by mail from New York for $3.50, when the book publishers paid for their own advertising. Only but—

(Continued on page three)

So the "G" Men Really Got Their Man in That Shindig at Hot Springs

NEW YORK. (AP)—The arrest at Hot Springs, Ark., of Charles (Lucky) Luciano, described as the head of all organized vice rackets in New York, was announced Wednesday by Thomas E. Dewey, special racket prosecutor.

Rangers on Trail
LITTLE ROCK. (AP)—State Police Superintendent Gray Albright said Wednesday that members of his department and Mulvany police officers investigated Wednesday morning a report that Alvin Karpis, reported to have been sought by federal agents Monday near Hot Springs, is still in this vicinity.

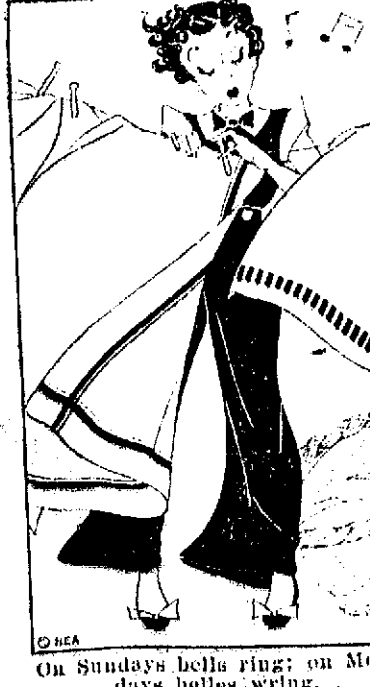

A man living in this section told the sheriff he saw a car which bore a New Jersey license plate leave the highway and go into the woods about dusk Tuesday, Albright said.

"He said one of the men looked like Karpis."

Officers searched the woods for five hours but reported no trace of the car.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

HEC U. S. PAT. OFF.

Coach Service to Louisiana Resumed

Tri-State Bus Line Restores Twice-a-Day Shreveport Run

Daily service between Hope and Shreveport was resumed Wednesday by the Tri-State coaches which now provides two passenger schedules daily between these two cities.

Service was suspended several weeks ago, due to road repairs. However, with the roads again in good condition, coaches leave Hope daily at 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., arriving in Shreveport at 1 p. m. and 6:50 p. m.

The route is by way of Lewisville and Plain Dealing, La.

Fitzwater Plans a Third Oil Test

New Attempt Planned Wednesday to Bring in No. 1 Lafferty

A third attempt to test the Fitzwater No. 1 Lafferty was scheduled for Wednesday afternoon.

Japs' Allies Are Driven Back From Mongolian Front

Russian-Supported State Apparently Defeats Army of Manchoukuo

CHANCE FOR PEACE

Japan Conciliatory, Wants to Know If Soviet Claims Mongolia

MOSCOW, Russia. (Copyright Associated Press)—Official advices from Mongolia stated Wednesday that a battle of more than 24 hours between Mongolians and Manchoukuos had ended after the Manchoukuos had been forced to retreat from Mongolian territory.

The official dispatches did not mention the casualties.

Battle Between Allies

Copyright by Associated Press
MOSCOW, Russia. (AP)—After receipt of Soviet dispatches describing an invasion of Outer Mongolia by Japanese-Manchoukuo forces, B. S. Stomaniakoff, foreign affairs vice commissar, told the Japanese ambassador Wednesday the situation "does not permit pacifically waiting for development of events."

His statement to Tamekichi Ota, Japanese ambassador to Moscow, came after advices from Ulan Bator, capital of Outer Mongolia, that the invasion had started Tuesday, leading to heavy fighting.

Stomaniakoff declared it was necessary to take "energetic measures" to put an immediate end to the attacks by Japanese troops against Mongolia. He said "serious responsibility" would fall on the Japanese government in case the actions of its "dependent organization" might lead to the extension of conflicts in Mongolian territory.

The Japanese-Manchoukuo forces are supported by an artillery battery, tanks, armored cars and airplanes, the dispatches asserted.

The first attack was said to have been launched against the border post of Abkhkodon. It was occupied and the invaders proceeded on against Tamysk-Bulak, which is about 30 miles inside Mongolian territory, the Soviet accounts continued.

The attackers were said to have met strong resistance at Tamysk-Bulak and to have been pushed back beyond Abkhkodon. There they received reinforcements and resumed the offensive.

In his conversation with the vice-commissar for foreign affairs, the Japanese ambassador promised to notify his government immediately of the Soviet viewpoint and indicated that Japan might concede a point by agreeing to the Russian suggestions to settle the boundary disputes through a mixed commission.

Ota said, however, that Japan feels it difficult to carry on negotiations with the Soviet because "it has no knowledge of what relations exist between the Soviet Union and Mongolia."

Japan previously had been in favor of direct negotiations between Mongolia and Manchoukuo without interference by either Russia or Japan.

Ota declared that the fighting at present on the Mongolian frontier was started by Mongolians and said the clashes were due to doubt as to the location of the frontier.

Stomaniakoff replied that the Mongolians would hardly attack the Japanese since that would be tantamount to inviting war which they could not want.

J. R. Thomas Dies; Funeral Thursday

Former Hope Man Succumbs at Texarkana— to Be Buried Here

J. R. Thomas, 58, formerly of Hope, died at 10:30 p. m. Tuesday at his home in Texarkana. He had been ill for some time.

His body will be brought to Hope for burial in Rose Hill cemetery at 10 a. m. Thursday.

Surviving are his father, H. Thomas of Eastland, Texas; and two brothers, W. A. Thomas of Texarkana.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. at the home of W. T. Gorham, R. L. Gossell, T. P. Boyett, Frank Ward, L. M. Boswell and John Ridgill.

In 1933, $125,000,000 was paid for toys made in the United States, and $2,125,000 worth were brought in from foreign countries.

Pictures of Tense Last Hours Tuesday Before Execution Was Ordered Delayed

Decisive Victory Won by Italians

7,000 Ethiopians Slain, Marshal Badoglio Reports to Rome

ROME, Italy. (AP)—Italy's northern army smashed through the its first major victory over the troops of Haile Selassie, led by the emperor himself, Marshal Badoglio reported Wednesday in an official communication.

He announced that 7,000 Ethiopians were killed and the Italian forces suffered more than 1,000 casualties.

Mad Dog Attacks Man and 15 Dogs

Alarm Spreads Through City, Although Rabies Test Is Pending

A mad dog, scarce reached police headquarters late Tuesday when Harry Abraham, white man, and half a dozen negroes reported that they had been bitten by a dog running wild in the southeastern section of the city.

Police hunted the dog until 2 a. m. Wednesday, but in the meantime it mowed down a dog owned by a negro whose name was not learned.

About 15 dogs were reported bitten throughout the city.

The dog's head was sent to the State Board of Health at Little Rock Wednesday for an examination.

Police Chief John W. Ridgill issued a stern warning to owners of dogs Wednesday, asking that all canines be kept up or muzzled until it could be determined whether the dog that was shot Tuesday night was affected with rabies.

Until this warning is heeded, dogs suspected with rabies will be shot on sight, the chief said.

Fire Department Rodeo for July 4

Third Annual Show Promises to Be Larger Than Predecessors

The Hope Fire Department's third annual Wild West rodeo will be held July 3 and 4 at Fair Park, it was announced Wednesday.

Bulletins

LITTLE ROCK. (AP)—Fred H. Stafford, marked tree attorney, announced Wednesday he would seek a writ of habeas corpus in circuit court late in the day to prevent the scheduled execution Friday of Andrew Hefley, negro, and that he had "absolute proof" that the commutation granted Hefley by Acting Governor Harve Thorne was legal.

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Senator Borah decided Wednesday to extend his primary campaign for the Republican presidential nomination to New Jersey.

NEW YORK. (AP)—Testimony in Vera Stretz's murder trial was completed Wednesday after the blonde secretary swore she did not intend to kill Dr. Fritz Gebhardt, her 43-year-old lover.

"End of March" Sale Big Success

Woman Slightly Injured in Rush of City-Wide Bargain-Seekers

The E. O. M. sale participated in by various Hope merchants Tuesday night exceeded all expectations, a survey disclosed Wednesday.

Business houses remained open from 7 to 10 p. m., giving late shoppers an opportunity to view the new spring and summer fashions and to make purchase of many advertised bargains.

At one store a woman whose name was not learned was injured slightly when she was shoved against a glass counter when the crowd rushed in as the door opened.

One store reported that business during the three hours Tuesday night was equivalent to a good day's business.

Another store hailed the End of March as a big success.

Stores participating in the event were: J. C. Penney, Geo. W. Robinson & Co., Haynes Bros., Burr Store Co., Hitt's Shoe store, Hope Furniture Co., Dugan's Shoe store, Scott Stores, Patterson's Department store.

George Schooley's Funeral on Sunday

Services Will Be Conducted at Family Home at 3:30 o'Clock

The funeral hour for George W. Schooley, well known Hempstead county man who died at his home Monday of pneumonia, has been set for 3:30 p. m. Sunday at the family residence on the Hope-Blevins road.

TOP LEFT—'I'd like to have that last meal sent to Dr. Condon,' Bruno Hauptmann told Mork O. Kimberling, principal keeper at the New Jersey Penitentiary, in a death house interview after the Lindbergh kidnaper broke down and wept Kimberling, showing the strain of a double execution order, is pictured describing Hauptmann's collapse.

TOP RIGHT—In the windowless building just beyond the stone wall in the foreground of this airview of the New Jersey Penitentiary at Trenton, Bruno Hauptmann was prepared to walk the long last mile to the electric chair while his wife and attorneys sought frantically to stave off his doom. The death chamber is the narrow 'L' at the fore part of the death house.

BOTTOM—Bruno Hauptmann was so upset that he couldn't concentrate to pray, Rev. John Mathiesen, pictured leaving the prison at Trenton, reported after a death house visit.

Police to Probe Candy Punchboard

Complaint Made Against Store Operating Near Local School

Chief of Police John W. Ridgill said Wednesday that he would investigate a report that a store operator near one of Hope's public schools was selling candy to school children through punchboards.

The complaint said that the store operator carried on other line of candy except that on punchboards, and that if school children wanted to purchase candy they were forced to take their chances on the punchboard.

Chief Ridgill turned it a "mean prank" on school children, and said that he would make a personal investigation.

Church Officers Meet Wednesday

Presbyterian Session to Follow Mid-Week Service Hour

Officers of First Presbyterian church will meet at 8 p. m. Wednesday in their respective groups, after which a joint meeting will be held at the church.

All officers are expected to attend. The Rev. Thomas Brewster, pastor, said.

The mid-week service will be held at 7:15 p. m. instead of 7:30.

One ton of wood pulp will make three acres of paper.

Sensation Likely When Grand Jury Reveals Its Hand

But Utmost Secrecy Surrounds Probe of Disbarred Lawyer Wendel

A FORMAL CHARGE

Wendel Held in Jail in Connection With the Lindbergh Case

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—Colonel Mork O. Kimberling, warden of New Jersey State Prison, announced Wednesday afternoon that Bruno Hauptmann's execution has been set for Friday night at 9 o'clock o'clock Hope time.

Jury "Break" Forecast

TRENTON, N. J. (Copyright Associated Press)—The sensational Lindbergh case still reeling from literally a last-minute halting of Bruno Richard Hauptmann's execution Tuesday night, was threatened with further startling developments Wednesday.

The new "break" the nature of which was not disclosed, promised to come from the Mercer county grand jury's investigation of charges in the murder of the Lindbergh baby was done by Paul H. Wendel, who held under a formal charge in the county jail here.

The exact nature of the developments could not be made public immediately, a high source said, but it was indicated it could be sensational.

William Hoffman, secretary to Governor Hoffman, said that several of the jurors' calls were received Tuesday threatening "an aftermath" if Hauptmann died in the electric chair.

Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, speaking of the delay which snatched her husband from death Tuesday night, said Wednesday, "I think this will be means of saving him."

May Delay Indefinitely

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—The possibility of Bruno Richard Hauptmann escaping the death-chair by Thursday night, grew Wednesday the Mercer county grand jury delay until Thursday morning further consideration of Paul H. Wendel's alleged confession of the Lindbergh kidnapping.

The announcement of the postponement came from Prosecutor E. H. Marshall of Mercer county.

The grand jury remained in session until the early hours of Wednesday morning and then adjourned Wednesday afternoon.

Saved at Last Minute

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—Bruno Hauptmann was saved dramatically from the electric chair again Tuesday night—at least for 38 hours—as the executioner waited for him to enter the death chamber.

The hour of death was at 8 p. m. Hauptmann had written a farewell letter to Governor Harold G. Hoffman, protesting anew that he was innocent of the Lindbergh baby murder.

Then the Mercer county grand jury took the perhaps unprecedented action of asking that he be spared.

Colonel Mark O. Kimberling, authority, complied with the request by delaying the execution for 38 hours. He could, on his own authority, have postponed it until Saturday night, but not beyond that.

The delay was announced by one Kimberling at 8:05 p. m. Hauptmann's execution was set for 8 o'clock.

"New Angles"
The request was made, Albany man, foreman of the jury explained because it was investigating the kidnap-slashing, made by a disbarred Trenton lawyer, Paul H. Wendel. Freeman said there were still "interesting new angles" in the case worthy of inquiry.

The Wendel "confession" and circumstances which led Wendel to become a prisoner, charged with murder of the Lindbergh baby earlier in the day, have been discredited Supreme Court Justice Thome Trenchard, Hauptmann trial juror.

In rejecting an application for a stay of execution, he called Wendel's statement "incredible out of harmony with the known facts in the case."

Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, wife of convicted Lindbergh baby killer, received the news his life had been spared with hysterical weeping as it was her hotel, waiting for the that he was dead.

Hauptmann, his hair already for the metal clamps of the electric chair, already split his shocked, leg clamped the news quiet chief counsel, C. Lloyd Fisher, said. "He took it as he takes everything in stride," Fisher said. "He told me, 'I am very happy.'"

(Continued on page three)

Hope Star

Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc.
 212-214 South Main Street, Hope, Arkansas

C. E. PALMER, President
 ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas
 Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Definition: "The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, to furnish widely circulated advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."—Col. R. W. McCormick.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per copy 15c; per month $5.00; one year $55.00. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, $6.00; in other parts of the United States, $6.50 per year; elsewhere $6.50.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it, or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

National Advertising Representatives: Arkansas Dailies, Inc., Memphis, Tenn., 312-314 Bldg.; New York City, 369 Lexington; Chicago, Ill., 75 E. Wacker Drive; Detroit, Mich., 338 Woodward Ave.; St. Louis, Mo., Star Bldg.

Changes on Tributes, Etc.: Charges will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, or memorials concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility for the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

The Truth About Diet

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
 Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

General belief prevails that the meat of poultry is much more digestible and nutritious than the lean meat of beef, and further, that the white meat of poultry furnishes less material which may produce uric acid than does the dark meat.

Scientifically controlled studies do not seem to verify these impressions. There is evidence, however, that the light meat, such as that of the breast, is more tender and, therefore, more likely to be digested easily than the muscle of the thighs.

In poultry meat, as in beef or other meats, the problem of the substance of chief concern is fat. Fat varies from 16 to 21 per cent of protein, and the amount of fat varies with the age and food of the bird. Ducks, geese, squab, and turkey provide far more fat than do other poultry.

The quality of poultry meat varies also with the age and even the sex, in addition to the food on which the birds are raised. Chickens are classified as young and old, the young chickens being divided into broilers, fryers, roasters, and capons; the old chickens into stags, fowls, and mature birds.

There are similar classifications for turkeys, ducks, and geese. The meat of male birds usually is darker, tougher, and more stringy, and it contains less fat, than that of females.

Today's Health Question
 Q.—Is it possible for a child to have scarlet fever without a rash, or without peeling of the skin?

A.—Scarlet fever occasionally is so mild that the rash is transient or not visible. In such cases the peeling also is slight as to be hardly apparent. Nevertheless, such an attack of scarlet fever will protect against future attacks. It is possible by a skin test to determine whether such people will develop scarlet fever again if they happen to be exposed to it.

males. Milk-fed chickens are said to have their fat more widely distributed than have corn-fed chickens.

But there is still some argument over this point. The fat of the milk-fed chicken is whiter than that of the corn-fed variety.

Besides the meat, as in the case of cattle and other animals, you should remember that the liver, the kidney, the heart, and the glands and organs of poultry contain much of the most valuable material from the point of view of nutrition.

Americans annually consume about 21 pounds of chicken per person. More than a billion baby chicks are hatched annually in the United States. Of this number, two-thirds are hatched in incubators.

Chickens make up 96 per cent of the poultry used in the United States. Then there are turkeys, geese, ducks, squab, pigeons, guinea hens, pheasants, quail, and other game birds. All make up an important part of the diet of the American public.

A Book a Day

By Bruce Catton

There are better fish in the sea, according to the old proverb, than ever were caught; and some of them seem to be very odd fish indeed.

"Deep Seas and Lonely Shores," by W. Lavallin Puxley (Dutton; $2.50), tells about some of the oddest of them. It is a chatty, informal book by a veteran naturalist, and it presents some pleasantly interesting facts about the sea and its creatures.

You will be glad, for instance, to learn about the parrot-wrasse, a fish which has a black ink spot, chews the cud, and has a chivalrous habit of following females in a chivalrous way when the females get into any kind of trouble; and about the scarlet scorpion, an eccentric swimmer which forever is changing its sex; and the globe fish, which can inflate itself to a spine-covered sphere in time of danger, but which pays for it by being obliged to swim about on the surface, bottom-side up, while so doing.

Then there is the deep-sea angler fish, the male of which species sinks its teeth in his wife's back immediately after marriage and hangs on for the rest of his life, living exclusively on her blood. There is, too, the Antarctic strapfooted whale, whose teeth grow out and curve about its lower jaw, clamping it shut and dooming the creature to slow starvation.

Nor should you miss the frost fish, of New Zealand, which can never be caught with a hook, but which obligingly comes clear up on the beach on cold winter nights and lets itself be caught by hand.

These are just a few among many. Altogether, "Deep Seas and Lonely Shores" is an entertaining book.

Your Children

By Olive Roberts Barton

Watch two puppies play. Then watch two small boys. There is little to be done about it. They're just that way.

Our dear little Jerome and someone's just-as-pinkie Archibald, all slicked and pinky perfect as Raphael's angels, get together after their naps and baths, out on the sidewalk.

Our Jerome has been so sweet. He raised his big blue eyes to ours, not an hour ago, and said, "I like you, mummy. Do you like me today? I like everybody." We squeezed him hard and made a mental note to save that up for dad. Was there ever such a sweet, serious precious child? So old beyond his years and even uttering epigrams that astound the family.

Actually he is too perfect. Something tugs inside us. Can such a perfect child live long? "Oh, dear father, watch over our little Jerome. Let not the wolves get him; he is so trusting and tender."

Then out goes Jerome and up comes Archibald, still damp from his own mama's kisses and hair tonic.

Challenge Accepted
 Says Jerome: "I'm bigger 'n' you." Retorts Archibald: "You are not. You're a sissy."

"Go on home."
 "I won't. I'll stand right on this place and you can't move me."

Jerome's toe is swift. Archy's shin is tender. He strikes out and Jerome's nose stops the two-and-a-half-inch fist.

They clinch and roll in the mud. Down at the corner Tony has taken his stand. He turns a handle of his barrel organ, and suddenly the pride of his heart, the only new piece he has bought in years, booms out: "Da, da, de, dah; da-de-dah; a few waves and an oomp."

Two small figures race. They hang around Tony and crane their necks to see the parrot.

"I know that piece," boasts Archibald.

"So do I," says Jerome. "We have it on our radio."

"Ain't it fun-ny?"

They both laugh. After a while Tony trundles away.

"I'll beat you home."

They both tear. They forget to notice who wins.

"Let's get our wagons."

Defender Becomes Aggressor
 "We'll make a train." Much fussing and panting and the project is finished, for a wonder. Archibald up and produces his papers as engineer. Jerome wiggles the train so that it upsets. Archy says, "Darn you, and glances anxiously toward the house. This time it is A. who kicks and J. who wins by a nose. Then they see a dog."

"Here, doggie, nice doggie. Yuh, yuh!"

"I wish I had a dog."

"I do, too. He's a 'crocker'."

"No, he's a spaniel."

"Boys, boys, it's supper time. Come in, Jerry, dear."

Inside we say, "Jerry, I don't like Archibald. He's too rough. He abuses you."

And next door the same thing is happening, names reversed.

And both little boys declare, "Why, we weren't fightin'! We were just fooling Jerome (Archy) is my friend."

In half an hour there is an Indian call from the yard. "Come on out." A figure at the window removes its bib and swallows its last cheerful "I'm comin'."

Spring Hill

The baccalaureate program was a success in every way Sunday morning, and especially did we enjoy the sermon by Rev. People of the Christian church of Nashville, and all those who did not attend missed a treat. So many of our people went to the oil well instead.

Rev. and Mrs. Dickerson had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. Binge, Nettie Binge, Mr. W. A. Binge and family and L. J. Binge and family of Texarkana.

Miss Lillie Johnson is unable to teach this week on account of sickness, also Mrs. Arch Turner.

Little Wayne Huckabee is a victim of pneumonia. We hope he will soon be able to go back to school.

Mrs. Tom Clark and two small children of Prescott spent last week with relatives and friends here.

A large number of our people went to the oil well Sunday and Monday.

Messrs. Mont Allen and Paul Bryant were down from Hope Monday.

O. O. Brint and wife spent Sunday

HOPE STAR, HOPE, ARKANEAS

Ah! If Only It Were T'other Way 'Round

night with Mr. and Mrs. Porterfield. Rev. Crain and family had as their guests Sunday Mr. Livingston and family of Hinton. They attended the baccalaureate sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Annzy McDowell spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Huckabee.

In Corintho, Nicaragua, soap is made in the size and shape of cigars.

In 1812 British warships fired a salute to George Washington as they passed Mount Vernon. Now flags are lowered to half mast as warships go by, and the ship's bell is tolled.

Gorgeous

BY LAURA LOU BROOKMAN
 © 1934 NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

TOBY IVAN, 12, works behind the jewelry counter of a large Manhattan department store. She faces for a photograph to be used in a store advertisement and MARTY HARTY, the photographer, tells her she has a "camera face."

Discharged from the store due to modeling the next morning, CAROL MARSH, rich and snobbish, she also sees wealthy TIM JAMIESON who has been trying for some time to persuade her to dine with him. Impetuously she agrees.

For a week Tim showers her with attentions and Toby admits to herself that she is falling in love with him. She is somewhat disturbed one evening when, shortly after their arrival at the fashionable Seville Club, Tim insists on leaving.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
 CHAPTER XIX

TOBY fought back the hateful, the outrageous thought. There was no reason, she told herself, to connect Carol Marsh with Tim's sudden change of mood. Why, he scarcely knew Carol. He'd made that plain when Toby had spoken of her long before. Why should she imagine now that it was because Tim had seen Carol and her friends that he was in such a hurry to leave the Seville Club? It was ridiculous. It couldn't be true—

She waited silently while Tim got into his coat. Silently she went ahead of him out to the street.

"Listen, Gorgeous—" Tim was beside her, smiling down at her. "How'd you like to go to Alfredo's?"

"—you know, where we went the first night we had dinner together?"

"I'd like some place that isn't as big as a circus tent. Where I can have you to myself. I don't want every man in sight staring at you."

"Tim—was that the reason you wanted to leave? Really?"

He was completely good-natured now. "Well," he said, "when a fellow takes a girl out he wants to be able to look at her himself, doesn't he? He doesn't want every other fellow within a mile looking at her as though he couldn't take his eyes away. I thought I'd better get out before I got into a row—"

The idea of Tim being drawn into a fight because of her was horrifying to Toby, but with it came a surge of relief. It hadn't been because of Carol Marsh that Tim wanted to leave the Seville Club? Carol hadn't had anything to do with it. It was because of Toby herself—because Tim was so devoted to her, "wanted her to himself," he said.

She raised shining eyes. "I didn't know anyone was staring at me," she said, "but, oh, Tim, I'm glad we came away."

"So'm I. Now, how about Alfredo's?"

"Let's go there. I'd rather go there than any place I know."

So they went to Alfredo's, and, sitting at one of the softly lighted tables, dancing to the same music that had danced to before, Toby felt again the magic of that earlier evening. She forgot Carol Marsh; forgot that, even for a moment, she had known the sharp pains of doubt.

TOBY said little. It was enough to look up and see Tim beside her, to catch his smile and smile back at him. She thought he looked especially handsome tonight. Though, of course, Tim was always handsome. She listened to everything he said and made suitable answers, but when he was not speaking she seemed to be in a world apart—a world of happiness and beauty and music that went on and on without ending.

Alfredo paused at their table and Tim assured him that everything was as it should be. Toby's heart echoed the words. Oh, yes, indeed. Everything was as it should be. Everything in the whole world!

It was not until they were on their way home that anything happened to change her mood.

Tim said, "By the way, I won't be seeing you for a day or so. Friend of mine has asked me to drive down to Maryland with him. He's got a place there he's been wanting me to see—"

"Oh!" It was a foolish little exclamation. Toby went on quickly, hoping Tim had not noticed it. "You're going?"

"Well, I can't very well get out of it. You see, he's asked me a couple of times before. And I thought the trip might be good for me. I've been sticking around town pretty close lately."

"Yes," Toby agreed. "I'm sure it will be good for you. What sort of place is it, Tim—where you're going?"

"Down on the Eastern Shore. Just an old house that has been in this fellow's family for years and years. Near some little town—I forget the name of it. He's got some horses there, too. May get to do some riding."

"That will be fine," Toby said as much to convince herself as Tim. "How long will you be gone?"

"Oh, just a few days." He looked down at her, smiling. "Think you'll miss me?"

"So that's all you've got to say, is it? You might! That's how I stand with you—"

SHE loved having him call at her like this. She said, "Well, I expect it will be sort of lonely."

"That's better! Though, I doubt if you mean it. You'll be stepping out with some other fellow—"

"Tim, you know I won't!"

"Listen, don't think you can fool me. I know your tricks, young woman. You're not putting a thing over on me—"

It ended with both of them treating it as a joke, which made it easier for Toby. It was so much better not to be serious, and to show how she really felt. At the entrance of the apartment she asked, "When did you say you were leaving, Tim?"

He hadn't said, but now he told her. "Early in the morning. I won't call you because you'll be asleep."

"Then I won't see you again?"

"Not for a few days. I'll give you a ring as soon as I get back. She put a hand on his arm. "Oh, Tim, I will miss you!"

"And I'll miss you, Gorgeous. But it's only a few days. Now I'd better be getting along. Got to get up early, you know—"

"Tim, take care of yourself."

He laughed. "Of course I will."

"But something might happen."

Her face was sometimes there, and sometimes there were accidents. Terrible things happen. Oh, you must be careful!"

"Listen, Gorgeous, I'm going to be all right! Now you run along and get your beauty sleep and stop worrying about me. Will you do that?"

"Yes, if you'll promise—"

"All right. I'll promise you I won't be in any accidents. Does that satisfy you?"

He took her in his arms then and kissed her, and for a moment she clung to him. Toby said, "Oh, Tim—" and then smiled brightly, determinedly. "It's all right. I know nothing's going to happen. I know you'll come back—soon."

"That's the girl. Good night, Gorgeous."

"Good night, Tim."

AFTER all, it was only for a few days. Toby reminded herself of this several times the following day. She told herself she had been going out too much anyhow, and a rest would be good for her. Besides, there were things that she could do—sewing and mending and the reading she'd been intending to get at and hadn't.

But when she started a task she soon found herself doing something else. She was restless, unable to settle down to anything. It was surely perverse fate that for the first time in weeks she had very little work. She didn't feel like going out and calling at studios where she wasn't known. She had a list from the Models' League and there were several on it that she hadn't visited, but she hated to be away from the apartment. She thought possibly some word might come from Tim.

He hadn't said anything about calling her over long distance, but still Toby thought he might. Not that there was any reason for it. Just to assure her that he was all right and would be home soon. Harriet's fiancé, Clyde Sabin, often called her when he was out of town.

Part of the time Toby argued with herself that she was sure to hear from Tim. At other times she made excuses for him. Why should he write or call when he was only to be gone a few days? He hadn't been definite about it. She didn't know if "a few days" meant two or three or even four. Surely it couldn't be more than that!

The first day dragged to a close and the second went even more slowly. Harriet, coming in late in the afternoon, saw Toby curled up on the davenport, a discarded magazine at her feet.

Harriet knew that Tim was away, though Toby hadn't told her where he'd gone. She thought Harriet might be inclined to criticize if she knew. Harriet seemed to think Tim should have a job.

"Hello," Harriet said, taking off her hat and tossing it on a chair. "What's new?"

"Nothing."

"Anyone call me while I was away?"

"No."

"Well," said Harriet, "I've got news for you. I stopped in at the League office to get that check they've been holding for me."

"Toby wasn't much interested, but she waited for Harriet to go on."

"Well, I thought you might like to know that you won't have to worry about your friend, Carol Marsh, for a while. Betty Turnbull was there, talking to Sally and I heard her say that Carol's out of town. She's gone to a house party in Maryland."

(To Be Continued)

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By Rodney Datcher

WASHINGTON—The Roosevelt administration, which loves itself for the enemies it has made and counts every attack from the Liberty League and Wall Street as so much velvet, now finds itself more than annoyed by a series of jobs right in Washington.

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan has taken over the function of a minority party in congress, which other Republicans there have seemed unwilling or unable to assume—the function of opposition.

For the first time, the Senate has rebelled under the leadership of a Republican against the administration—which was what it did when Vandenberg persuaded it to stop funds for the Florida ship canal and three lesser projects. Thanks to Vandenberg, the Passamaquoddy project in Maine is being similarly treated.

On top of that, Vandenberg becomes even more embarrassing to the New Deal by his promise to expose huge AAA benefit payments to large corporations. He also has been among those foremost in demanding investigation of WPA.

By such assaults Vandenberg is building himself up as an outstandingly available candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. If by any chance Gov. Alf Landon of Kansas should not be nominated, it generally believed in Washington that Vandenberg would be the party's choice.

He'd Rather Run in 1936
 But the senator has made no move toward getting the nomination and there isn't any organized effort, even in his own state, to nominate him. The real showdown on the Vandenberg dark horse "candidacy" is this:

Less than a year ago the Michigan senator was acting very much like a man who would seek the nomination. But now he suspects that the G. O. P. nomination won't be worth having until 1940.

Vandenberg favors the nomination of Senator Borah of Idaho. The Michigan delegation will go uninstructed to the Cleveland convention, but reports are that it probably will be pro-Borah.

Borah wants Vandenberg nominated in case he can't win the honor himself. He is said to have promised in effect that he would throw his support at the convention to Vandenberg if his own nomination seemed impossible.

Meanwhile, the two men are playing closely together and you'll hear a lot more about all this if it appears Landon doesn't have a walkaway at the convention's outset.

Gets in New Deal's Hair
 Meanwhile, Vandenberg gets under the New Deal hide because he picks the spots where the hide is thinnest.

Such projects as the Florida ship canal and Passamaquoddy have been under suspicion from the first as to their soundness. Roosevelt okayed them and there was plenty of room for belief that they never would have been approved unless political angles had been considered.

They were begun in each case with $5,000,000 from the work-relief fund. Then the administration undertook to unload them on the regular budget. The appropriation asked for the Florida canal for the next fiscal year was $12,000,000.

The house eliminated the recommendations for both projects and the administration would have had the money put back in the senate bill if it hadn't been for Vandenberg.

Makes Projects Look Bad
 He argued that when a "doubtful" project such as the ship canal came up, the senate should think twice before it permitted the president to embark the treasury on an expenditure of $150,000,000 or $200,000,000 without previous congressional study and approval.

The senate agreed with him and seemed so certain to do likewise as to the Maine project that no attempt was made to get money back in for that one. The obvious result is to leave Roosevelt in a hole, since abandonment would be a confession of a couple of $5,000,000 errors and temporary continuance with available funds would look like a dictatorial disregard of the senate.

Backs Big AAA Payment
 When Vandenberg says he knows of an AAA corn-hog contract which brought a beneficiary $219,825 in two years for not raising 14,587 hogs; a wheat contract which brought 65 checks for a total of $78,638 to a single beneficiary; and a cotton contract which paid $168,000, he naturally makes the New Dealers squirm. He Flint—Did you ever win an argument with your wife?

 Stone—Yes, once. It was years ago.

Flint—What about
 Stone—I don't exactly remember that. But I do remember very distinctly that we were laying carpet and her mouth was full of carpet tacks at the time.

In the shoe business there is a width called AAAA. It looks decidedly unconstitutional.—American Lumberman.

WANTED—HEADING BOLTS
 White Oak—Whisky and Old Grade. Overcup, Post Oak and Red Oak. Round Sweet Gum Blocks. For prices and specifications, See HOPE HEADING COMPANY. Phone 245 Hope, Ark.

"SPRING CLEANING by COMPLIMENT METHODS"

Have us handle all your work, ready for you on time, thoroughly cleaned.

PHONE 385 Hall Bros. CLEANERS & HATTERS

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rain! Is Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It takes time in the bowels, gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks unkind.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes time to get old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

QUALITY SEEDS - PLANTS
 Everything

Society

Mrs. Sid Henry

Telephone 821

The Happy Distances

How beautiful and beckoning and far
Those shining vistas are:
Against the trail's end, blue against the sky;
Abode of the silver wings, and the heavily thinned
Light laughter of the wind!

The happy distances.
Forever leading on Down every road that I have ever gone.
Down every road that I shall ever go:
Once with youth's fever in my blood
I sought
To reach them, now I know
The wisdom of the plan
That keeps some beauty from the heart of man,
And sets it racing over hill and hollow,
For eyes to feast upon—for feet to follow.—Selected.

Oral C. Walker who has spent the past two months in the city connected with the finance department of the WPA left Tuesday for his home near Arkadelphia.

Mrs. James L. Jamison left Wednesday for a two weeks stay in Texarkana.

Mrs. R. V. Herndon, Mrs. Rufus Herndon, Miss Ruth Barrett and Miss Margery Higgins were Wednesday visitors in Hot Springs.

Friends will be interested in knowing that Mrs. Jesse Brown, who has been ill at her home on the Spring Hill road for the past three weeks, is able to be removed to the home of her mother, Mrs. T. E. Urey, West Division street for convalescence.

The Pat Cleburne chapter, U. D. C. will meet at 2:30 Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Bryant, South Elm street, with Mrs. A. F.
Haneagan and Miss Zenobia Reed as associate hostesses. Roll call responses will be "Problems of the new deal." Subject for discussion: "The South and Her Problems."

Mrs. L. E. Talley, who has spent the

Here's the FIRST real picture treat for the Spring season... Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers in "Follow the Leader".... It starts Sunday at the

SAENGER
TONIGHT
Sit where you like!
2 for 36c

SMITH
BROS?
—in—
SILLY BILLIES
DOROTHY LEE
—SHORTS—
"Treasure Blues"
"Radio Rhapsody"

THURSDAY & FRIDAY
Matinee 2:30 Tues. 15c

HAROLD LLOYD
"The Milky Way"
3 SHORTS

DEPENDABLE
Field and Garden
SEED
CHILEAN NITRATE SODA
ARMOUR'S FERTILIZER
See Us Before You Buy
McWilliams & Co.
Seed Store

NOTICE TO OUR
CUSTOMERS!
We are now handling
the
Purina Chicken Feeds
"M" SYSTEM STORE

FOR SALE!
Shiners and Minnows
and Gold Fish
For Fishing
LUCK'S TOURIST
COURT
PHONE 222

past two weeks at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Anna Judson, has returned to her home in Beaumont, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bridewell and son and Mrs. Bridewell Mother, of Morristown were Tuesday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Bidewell.

Mrs. O. A. Graves is in Little Rock this week where she is attending a meeting of the Little Rock conference of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church.

A week day session of the Primary and Junior Departments of the First Methodist Sunday school, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the church, with Miss Mamie Bryant, leader assisted by Miss Della McClanahan and Mary Louise and Wanda Keith. The devotional consisted of favorite verses from the Bible given by ten of the children. The program on "The Children of Mexico" was most interesting, with each child present, giving some fact pertaining to the life of the children of that country. Miss Linda Marie Cobb gave a violin lesson accompanying on the piano. Following the program, delicious refreshments were served by the members of Circle No. 3 of the Women's Missionary Society.

Mrs. Ross R. Gillespie and Mrs. Sue
S. Wilson were Wednesday visitors in Texarkana.

Mrs. Franklin Ozmer, of Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Camp, of Patmos, and other relatives. She is the former Miss Irene Camp.

Patmos Juniors to Give Play Friday

Annual Class Play Is a Comedy, "The Wild
Oats Boy"

Patmos High School Junior class will present its annual class play Friday night in the auditorium of the Patmos school. The play is entitled,
"The Wild Oats Boy," a comedy in three acts.

Members of the cast are:
Aunt Anne, housekeeper in Uncle
George's home—Lois Hairston.
Della, the maid—Louetta Henderson.
Judy, Uncle George's adopted daughter—Marjorie Wiggins.
Danny Murphy, the cook, maybe—Melvin Middlebrooks.
Patricia Gilden (Pat), Judy's friend
—Rena Mae Horton.
Eve Martin (another friend)—Virginia Walton.
Eddie, the wild oats boy—Kelly Walton.
Prue, the country cousin—Vernell Cox.
Charles Benton (Chuck), the expepifighter—Clifford Owen.
Trout, Prue's pestiferous son—
Charles B. Huebaly.
Jake Peters, a cousin from New York—Travis Ward.
Seth, the uncle from Maine—Solwyn
Adams.
Mose, Uncle George's dark servant—
Warren Rider.

SMITH
BROS?
—in—
SILLY BILLIES
DOROTHY LEE
—SHORTS—
"Treasure Blues"
"Radio Rhapsody"

THURSDAY & FRIDAY
Matinee 2:30 Tues. 15c

HAROLD LLOYD
"The Milky Way"
3 SHORTS

DEPENDABLE
Field and Garden
SEED
CHILEAN NITRATE SODA
ARMOUR'S FERTILIZER
See Us Before You Buy
McWilliams & Co.
Seed Store

NOTICE TO OUR
CUSTOMERS!
We are now handling
the
Purina Chicken Feeds
"M" SYSTEM STORE

FOR SALE!
Shiners and Minnows
and Gold Fish
For Fishing
LUCK'S TOURIST
COURT
PHONE 222

Harold Lloyd at Saenger Thursday

"The Milky Way" to Appear on Local Screen
for Two Days

Harold Lloyd is up to new tricks in
"The Milky Way," his latest picture that comes Thursday and Friday to the Saenger.

The speckled farceur is as always inimitable. As a timid milkman who is pushed into fistic fame when he ducks the blows of the middleweight champion in a brawl, Lloyd gave everybody a splendid hilarious time.

Two fierce pugilists proceed to try to knock the comedian's block off. In the assortment of footwork that Lloyd uses to escape every dance step is introduced from the tribal stomp of angry aborigines to the bubble-chasing flutters of Sally Rand.
"The Milky Way" is insanely merry.
It is guaranteed to give every funny-bone a good workout.

Fine work is done by the supporting cast, which is composed of Adolphe Menjou, Verne Treadwell, Helen Mack, William Gargan, Dorothy Wilson and Lionel Stander.

Townsend, Facing Fire, Reorganizes

But He Is Deserted by McGroarty, His Congressional Leader

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Complete reorganization of the Townsend old age pension organization was announced Tuesday on the eve of resumption of a congressional investigation of it.
Disclosures of a "startling nature" were hinted after a closed meeting of the house investigating group. Members indicated they would go deeply into the circumstances of the reorganization.

Dr. F. E. Townsend, co-founder, announced appointment of Gomer Smith of Oklahoma City as vice president of the Old Age Revolving Pension, Ltd., and Gilmour Youth of San Francisco, to succeed Robert E. Clements, who resigned as national secretary after differences with the elderly California doctor.

The reorganization followed a break between Townsend and Representative McGroarty (Dem., Cal.), his principal congressional supporter.
"I am no longer interested in what Dr. Townsend thinks," McGroarty said today in predicting the doctor's leadership would be repudiated if he deviates from the original plan of a transactions tax to raise funds for $200 monthly pensions to all persons over 60.

McGroarty asserted Townsend had endorsed a plan proposed by his lawyer, Sheridan Downey, calling for the issuance of tax-exempt bonds to raise pension funds instead of a transactions tax.

Lindberghs Silent
WEALD, Kent, Eng.—(AP)—The Lindberghs—father, mother and son Jon—retired Tuesday night in their ancient, half-timbered kenshish cottage before Bruno Richard Hauptmann received a stay of execution as he prepared to die for the murder of their first son.

They had spent the day in the open air and spring sunshine. Jon climbed trees in the garden and played with Mrs. Lindbergh on the trim, flower-bordered lawns.

In the morning the family walked on green fields which stretched from the bottom of the garden to distant hills.
Later they went to the tiny village of Weald, with its red-brick cottages and square-towered parish church, where they worshipped Sunday.

In London, Harold Nicolson, one of Colonel Lindbergh's closest friends and who rented him the cottage here, disclosed that the flier has spent most of his time since his arrival in this country working on a mechanical heart and lungs.

Will Remain Silent
Nicolson, who is an author, said the Lindberghs "will certainly refuse to say anything when Hauptmann is executed."

"They feel that tragic episode deeply, and have resolved that the only way they can forget it is by never mentioning it under any circumstances," he said.

The Lindberghs, who came to this country secretly late in December, have been at the Fourteenth century house in Weald for several weeks.
They have made frequent motor trips in England, Scotland and Wales.

Neighbors have joined in aiding them to maintain strict privacy.
London newspapers printed long dispatches from Trenton Tuesday night but did not mention the Lindberghs.

Family Carfare Saved by Pigeon

This meek little pigeon is a pretty sight, making her zeta-way, but she's just a deficit to the Portland, Ore., Street Railway Co. Urban Kubat, 19, above, carries her to work in the morning. He frees her after trying his weekly car pass to one leg. She flies home and Urban's father uses the pass, again sending the others of the family repeat the act and the traction company just has to like it, losing three fares a day.

Only Two Dozen

(Continued from page one)

cause newspapers all over America have agreed to donate the necessary advertising, and handle office sales without cost, it is possible to offer the encyclopedia now for $1.25.

The Star doesn't want to return any books to New York—but it positively is going to close out the business in the next few days. And when it does no more books will be ordered.

New Liberty

Health is fairly good in this community at this time.

Radish pulling seems to be the order of the day around here.

Mrs. D. S. Easterling of Corinth is visiting her daughter Mrs. A. W.
Hamilton at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Easterling and sons Bob and James visited at Dock Hamilton's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Purcell and son, Ned Roy, of Ardison visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton Friday.

Mrs. Jewel Langston and son Jesse Royce visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Milton Davis of Fulton last week.

Pearl Ware was a Saturday night
guest of Edna Crider; Bettie Frances

Bailey May Force Racing Question

Ban Ineffective This Year,
Would Establish It for Next Season

LITTLE ROCK.—Attorney General
Carl E. Bailey said Tuesday that he is undecided whether he will appeal from Chancellor Dodge's ruling Monday that Pulaski Chancery Court does not have jurisdiction to enjoin the State Racing Commission from extending the 30-day racing meet at Hot Springs to 37 days.

Chancellor Dodge said the commission and the Oklahoma Jockey Club "plainly are violating the law," but held that action against them should be brought in Garland chancery court.

Mr. Bailey said he could not obtain a hearing in Garland county until after the race meeting would be ended and that he feared the case would be ruled out as a "moot" question if he appealed from Chancellor Dodge's ruling on the question of jurisdiction, since the matter at issue would be ended before the case could be tried on its merits after the question of jurisdiction had been settled.

The attorney general said he would decide whether to appeal the case after lawyers for the commission file a demurrer to his complaint and the record is completed. The informal hearing Monday was held without a demurrer or answers having been filed.
Mr. Bailey said it probably would be worthwhile to settle the question of jurisdiction to guide the courts, if the question is raised at next year's meeting.

A group of 15 ministers, representing four denominations in Little Rock and North Little Rock, called on the attorney general and commended him for having challenged the right of the commission to extend the race meeting. Denominations represented were Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Church of God.

Hamilton visited at the same place
Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Hamilton and Mrs. Joe
Hamilton were callers at J. J. Crider's
Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lula Hamric visited her mother and other relatives of Fairview last week-end.

Vaughn Bright is the champion radish puller on the Dock Hamilton farm, having pulled over eleven hundred bunches in one day.

Mrs. Dock Hamilton and son Carl and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton were shopping in Hope and Prescott Saturday.

Remember the birthday dinner and preaching at Grandma Langston's next Sunday, the 5th of April.

Judge—Well, Jim, I can give you this divorce, but it will cost you exactly $30.

Jim—Thirty dollars, boss? ?
Judge—Yes, that's the court fee for expenses.

Jim—Well, judge, I don't believe I wants no divorce. There ain't $30 difference between dem two wimmen.

Pioneer Developer of Miami Beach

ONE of the pioneers who first saw the possibilities of Florida as a resort and business center,
playing a large part in its upbuilding, was
Carl O. Fisher.
He had a major role in the development of Miami Beach,
where he has been wintering.

Testing of Brakes Urged for Autos

Free Demonstration Is Given to Motorists in Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK.—The International Highway association, the State Revenue Department, the Arkansas Safety Council and Little Rock police were commended Tuesday by Governor Fu-rell, the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Little Rock Safety Council for the brake-testing work being conducted on Broadway near Eleventh street without cost to motorists.

"Every person should take advantage of the opportunity to have his brakes tested," the governor said.
"They tested my brakes when I was not sure I would not get a ticket to court, but they found nothing wrong with either my brakes or lights."

J. H. Dunn, president of the Greater
Little Rock Safety Council, wrote Jack DeLyle, president of the International Highway association, that it is to be hoped that a state law requiring all motorists to have their brakes tested periodically and establishment of permanent testing stations will result from the demonstration.

FOR STUFFY HEAD

A few drops up each nostril reduces swollen membranes,
clears away clogging mucus, brings welcome relief.

VICKS VAPOR-NOL
30c double quantity 50c

NEW DRESSES
and HATS
THE GIFT SHOP
(Mrs. C. P. Holland)

Commencement at Spring Hill School

C. A. Overstreet to Speak at Graduation There
Thursday Night

Graduation exercises for Spring Hill High School will be held at 8
p. m. Thursday in the high school auditorium of the Spring Hill school.
Charles A. Overstreet, president of Magnolia A. & M. college will deliver the address to the 12 graduates. They are:

Weaver E. Clements, president of the class; Nita Collins, treasurer; Glen Walker, salutatorian; Marilyn Collins, valedictorian; Verdo Powell, vice president; Charles Young, Y. M. C. A.

Lecturer; James Glass, student body leader; Brian Moore, Little Rock High School art and host class.

BLANKETS
LAUNDERED
By the Woolen 50c
Mills Process
No Shrinkage
Nelson-Huckins

B. R. HAMM
MOTOR CO.
PHONE 59

AIR-STEP
Brown

Not just a pair of shoes... but AIR-STEP. In beautiful, breathtaking styles, with the noted inner cushion of comfort to add buoyancy and lightness to your step. Types for street and dress.
See them by all means. This shoe comes in Patent Leather, Grey Suede and White Kid.

HITT'S
Brown Shoe Store

*I wouldn't give that for a cigarette that doesn't Satisfy
...that doesn't give me
what I want in a smoke*

I want my cigarette mild, of course—I hardly think anybody enjoys a strong cigarette. But deliver me from the flat, insipid kind.

I find a great deal of pleasure in Chesterfields. They're mild and yet they seem to have more taste and aroma. I enjoy them.

They Satisfy... just about all you could ask for

Pioneer Soldier

Answers to Previous Puzzle

16 Indigo. 21 Genus of snakes. 22 Person inside. 24 Verbal enigma. 25 Slim. 27 Ship's record. 28 Unit of work. 29 To perish. 31 Twitching. 33 Hops kill. 38 Born. 39 Song for one voice. 40 Bell sound. 41 Hence. 42 Half. 43 Silk worm. 44 Snake. 45 Leguminous plant. 46 Weight allowance. 47 Moldings. 48 Auditor. 49 Every. 53 South Carolina. 58 Northeast.

49 Over. 50 To rub out. 52 To decay. 53 Scorfa. 54 Plot of ground. 55 Ireland. 57 Some were enrolled as regular militia in days. 58 They were summoned on 12 Sea eagle. minute's. 13 To accomplish.

VERTICAL
1 Musical note. 2 Thought. 3 Tidings. 4 Consumes. 5 Gaelic. 6 Heath. 7 Striped fabric. 8 Fiber knots. 10 To value. 11 Wages. 12 Sea eagle. 13 To accomplish. 58 Northeast.

14 KING. 15 EDWARD. 16 INDIGO. 17 GENUS OF SNAKES. 18 PERSON INSIDE. 19 VERBAL ENIGMA. 20 SLIM. 21 SHIP'S RECORD. 22 UNIT OF WORK. 23 TO PERISH. 24 TWITCHING. 25 HOPS KILL. 26 BORN. 27 SONG FOR ONE VOICE. 28 BELL SOUND. 29 HENCE. 30 HALF. 31 SILK WORM. 32 SNAKE. 33 LEGUMINOUS PLANT. 34 WEIGHT ALLOWANCE. 35 MOLDINGS. 36 AUDITOR. 37 EVERY. 38 SOUTH CAROLINA. 39 NORTHEAST.

40 KING. 41 EDWARD. 42 INDIGO. 43 GENUS OF SNAKES. 44 PERSON INSIDE. 45 VERBAL ENIGMA. 46 SLIM. 47 SHIP'S RECORD. 48 UNIT OF WORK. 49 TO PERISH. 50 TWITCHING. 51 HOPS KILL. 52 BORN. 53 SONG FOR ONE VOICE. 54 BELL SOUND. 55 HENCE. 56 HALF. 57 SILK WORM. 58 SNAKE. 59 LEGUMINOUS PLANT. 60 WEIGHT ALLOWANCE. 61 MOLDINGS. 62 AUDITOR. 63 EVERY. 64 SOUTH CAROLINA. 65 NORTHEAST.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With MAJOR HOOPLE

OUT OUR WAY

YEAH--WHEN MIKE DOES A NIGHT SNEAK, HE OUGHTA TOTE A SPADE BACK, TO SHOVEL OUT THE SOFT GOO--

HMF--ALL THE HOOPLES ARE TWINS! MY BELLOWS HAS BEEN ON A DIET OF SOFT SOAP SO LONG THAT EVERY TIME HE OPENS HIS SNAPPERS HE BLOWS BUBBLES-- HE CAN SHUFFLE ALIBIS AND SLIP YOU AN ACE EVERY HAND, WHEN HE'S DEALING OUT THE RAGTIME-- A REGIMENT OF ROYAL MOUNTIES COULDN'T CORNER HIM IN AN OCTAGONAL ASH CAN!

MISERY LOVES COMPANY!

OOH--RIGHT IN THE MIST OF BEAUTIFUL SCENERY, HE'S MORE INTERESTED IN A JUNK PILE! NOT A BIT OF CULTURE ER CLASS IN HIM! A TRASH PILE ADMIRER--WHAT COULD BE LOWER THAN THAT?

TH' GUY WHO PUT IT HERE!

NEXT OF KIN.

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

On All Fronts

By M

AM I TO UNDERSTAND THAT I AM VIRTUALLY A PRISONER, YOUR HIGHNESS?

YOU ARE! I'M VERY DISPLEASED WITH YOUR ACTIONS, SON--AND I DON'T INTEND TO ALLOW YOU TO MAKE A FOOL OF YOURSELF, NOR ME, AGAIN.

TODAY IS APRIL FOOL'S DAY! TSK TSK! HOW APPROPRIATE

OH, STEPHEN--I'M FRANTIC! WHERE COULD BOOTS BE?

NOW, NOW--DON'T WORRY--WE'LL HEAR FROM HER, SHORTLY YOU'LL SEE

WELL--THIS COULD BE WORSE--BE SURE I SHOULD BE THANKFUL FOR THAT

ALLEY OOP

That'll Be a Big Job, Yer Highness

By HAMLI

THERE--LOOKIT THAT! A FINE KING YOU ARE--T'LET THAT FOOL--OOPS SCALY-HIDED PEST--PICKET YOUR VERY PALACE DOOR!

AW, SHUT UP AN' GIT OUTA MY WAY--I'LL HANDLE THAT CRITTER!

GIT OUTA HERE, YOU BIG SLAB-SIDED LUMMOX! GIT GOIN', Y'HEAR?--BEFORE I LOSE MY TEMPER AN' BAT YA A COUPLE!

ROYAL PALACE OF MOO

BRRRRRP!

WAIT'LL I GIT MY HANDS ON SUMPIN'! SNOOT AT ME, WILL HE! GRRRRAH! I'LL KILL 'IM!!

WASH TUBBS

Quick on the Trigger

By CRAN

TEN O'CLOCK AND THE GAY PARADE IS AS QUIET AS YOU PLEASE. ELEVEN O'CLOCK AND A PORTLY CHAP RISES FROM THE CORNER TABLE

GOIN' HOME, ELMO?

NAW, JEST STRETCHIN' MY LEGS.

YOU'RE UNDER ARREST, MR. MAGLEW.

QUICK, BOYS! LET 'EM HAVE IT!

SET DOWN, YE MANGY GRASSHOPPERS! THE JOINT'S PINCHED!

WAKKY!

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

A Mother's Plea

By BLOSSE

MY BOY... MY POOR BOY! WHAT'S HAPPENED?

I'M KIND OF IN A JAM, I GUESS, MOM!

I WENT FOR YOUR MEDICINE AND THE STORE WAS CLOSED, SO I WENT IN THRU AN OPEN WINDOW AND GOT THE MEDICINE!

I LEFT MONEY ON THE COUNTER TO PAY FOR IT, BUT WHEN A COP CAUGHT ME AND TOOK ME INTO THE STORE, TO CHECK MY STORY, THE MONEY WASN'T THERE!

THERE MUST BE SOME MISTAKE, OFFICER! MY BOY DOESN'T TAKE THINGS... HE'S NOT A THIEF!

I'M SORRY, MRS. COOK!

AREN'T YOU EVEN GOING TO GIVE HIM A CHANCE? I HAVE EVERY FAITH IN MY BOY!

HE'LL HAVE A FAIR TRIAL BUT, MRS. COOK, THE JAIL ARE FILLED WITH BOYS WHOSE MOTHERS STILL HAVE FAITH IN THEM!

MYRA NORTH, SPECIAL NURSE

Myra Escapes

By THOMPSON & COLE

MYRA RECOGNIZES THE OFFICER OF THE TROOPS WHO HAVE STOPPED THE TRAIN TO SEIZE JACK--IT'S HYSTER!

THAT MAN HAS A FACILITY FOR TURNING UP EVERYWHERE! ROOG JACK--HE NEVER HAD A CHANCE!

WELL, HYSTER WON'T CATCH ME THIS TIME! AS LONG AS I'M FREE, THERE'S A CHANCE OF HELPING JACK.

THEY'LL NEVER FIND ME IN THIS JUNGLE--WHEN THE TRAIN LEAVES, I CAN GET BACK TO THE TRACKS AND ATTRACT SOMEONE'S ATTENTION.

WE'VE SEARCHED THE TRAIN, EXCELLENCY--THE GIRL IS NOT ABOARD!

TOO BAD--WE'LL HAVE TO TAKE THIS FOREGIG TO THE CAPITAL ALONE, THEN.

Holly Springs

Stamp News

By I. S. Klein

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Martin spent the night with his parents, Tuesday night. Several relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Woodruff Saturday night and listened to the radio.

Several from here were shopping in Waldo Saturday.

James A. and Miss Bennie Thompson were Sunday visitors of their father, Edgar Thompson, who was moved from Cora Donnell hospital to his daughter's Mrs. Oma Gay at Hope.

Mrs. Irene Buford is visiting her mother, Mrs. May Martin who is very sick.

In the Eskimo language, "I love you" is "Univbgs-saerutunafinjuun-juarisiguejak." This explains why the arctic nights have to be so long.--Pathfinder.

THE self-effacing newspaperman no longer can keep his existence a mysterious secret, for Spain has decided to pay tribute to the clan by issuing a series of 16 stamps commemorating the 40th anniversary of the Press Association of Madrid, and picturing some of its most famous journalists.

Like many other Spanish issues, however, these stamps were sold for use on only three days, and the government has turned the remainders over to the Press Association, which is solving its budget problem by sale of the extras to stamp collectors.

France, too, seems to have broken out with a rash of new issues, particularly for its colonies. A triple threat set of 45 stamps for regular postage, airmail, and postage due has been designed for Senegal. Another series has been printed for Guadeloupe, Martinique, and Guiana, commemorating the tercentenary of these French colonies in the western hemisphere.

Leading collectors are preparing for the International Philatelic Exhibition to be held in Grand Central Palace, New York, from May 1 to May 17. The greatest and costliest collections of the world will be represented.

A group of Pennsylvania artists recently selected the Italian colonial issues for Cyrenaica, Eritrea, Somaliland, and Tripolitania as the most beautiful postage stamps since the World War.

And a vote among French philatelists gives the palm to England's "penny black" as the finest and most striking postage stamp ever issued.

(Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

Sell It! Find It! Rent It! Buy It! in the Hope Star

MARKET PLACE

Remember, the more you tell, the quicker you sell.

1 time, 10c line, min. 30c

For consecutive insertions, minimum of 3 lines in one ad

3 times, 6c line, min. 50c

4 times, 5c line, min. 90c

25 times, 3 1/2c line, min. $2.70 (Average 5 1/2 words to the line)

NOTE--Want ads will be accepted with the understanding that the bill is payable on presentation of statement, before the first publication.

Phone 766

WANTED TO BUY

WANTED TO BUY--Will pay 5 cents per pound for clean cotton rags. No overalls or ticking will be accepted. Rags will be personally examined. Hope Star. dh

FOUND

FOUND--Ladies purse on the Hope and Lewisville highway. Harley V. Price, Buckner, Ark., Rt. 1. 1-3p

LOST

LOST--Purse between oil well and Liberty Hill on Lewisville highway. Sunday. Reward if returned to Star office. Mrs. S. M. Hodnett, Hope, Route Two. 30-31c

FOR RENT

FOR RENT--Five room furnished apartment. Private with garage. In my home. J. A. Sullivan. 27-1f

FOR RENT--Front bedroom adjoining bath, and garage, with or without meals. 206 West 13th street. 1-1p

FOR SALE

FOR SALE--Pure sorghum syrup, 50c per gallon. Hope Star. dh

FOR SALE--Lankhart cotton planting seed. Full inch staple. Dollar bushel. Decaneyville seedhouse. Mrs. S. H. Battle. 20-26p

FOR SALE OR TRADE--Several young mules. H. W. Timberlake, Washington, Ark., Rt. One. 30-31-p

FOR SALE--Improved Porto Rican Potato seed, 75c per bushel. R. M. Fincher, Highway No. 4, Rosston road, 4 miles out. 30-31p

FOR SALE--Good work mules. Can be seen at Centerville, 7 miles east of Hope on Highway No. 4, W. A. Austin. 29-31 f

Legal Notice

WARNING ORDER

IN THE HEMPSTEAD PROBATE COURT

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF W. S. DUCKETT, DECEASED.

JULIA A. DUCKETT, Petitioner, vs. H. M. STEPHENS, EXECUTOR, et al. Defendants.

The defendants J. R. Duckett and Betty T. Duckett, his wife, Clarence Moreland and Hattie Moreland, his wife, John Moreland and Jessie Moreland, his wife, Tom Moreland and Floyd Moreland, his wife, Ralph Moreland, Harold Moreland and Ezekiel Moreland, his wife, Ruby Wilcoxson and Harry Wilcoxson, her husband, are hereby warned to appear in this court within thirty days hereafter and answer the petition of the petitioner herein.

Witness my hand and seal as clerk of this court on this 25th day of March, 1936.

RAY E. McDOWELL, Clerk.

March 25, April 1, 8, 15.